5.1.2.1 - Total number of students benefited by scholarships, freeships, etc provided by the institution / non- government agencies during the year.

Policy document of the HEI for award of scholarships and freeships.

The core of the scholarship and financial assistance policy of the institution is to make available different types of scholarships and also extend financial assistance to the desiring and eligible students. The institution has a very transparent scholarship policy. The institution makes available different types of scholarships to the students. These are scholarships from Association of Non-Government Colleges (ANGC), Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj Scholarship for open category students and Government of India Scholarship for economically and socially backward category students.

Along with scholarships, the institution also extends financial assistance to the needy and desiring students in three ways. These are Students' Aid Fund, Students' Welfare Fund and Earn and Learn Scheme. Needy and economically downtrodden students are selected for extending financial assistance from the aforesaid two funds. In case of Earn and Learn Scheme, two needy students are selected for working for limited hours in the College library. The assistance to be given to them is either paid in cash or is adjusted against their fees.

The institution follows standard operating procedure in respect of different types of scholarships- from issuing notices regarding scholarships and financial assistance to disbursal of the different stipulated amounts to the students. In all cases, amounts are paid to the students through cheques and or credited on their Accounts directly by the Government.

Of all the three scholarships mentioned above, the ANGC scholarships are awarded by Association of Non-Government Colleges, a Non-Government Organisation (N.G.O.) established by the principals of Non-Government Colleges.

In all the above cases, the institution tries its level best to help maximum number of desiring and eligible students in availing the scholarships.
